I retired because I had a knee injury, my cartilage was wearing out, it was painful and I couldn't put in the four hours of practice each day that I needed to.

~Guy Forget

Anything is possible as long as you have the passion.

~Guy Forget

Suddenly in the end when it's over, you feel a big weight on your shoulders. That's the role of the captain. Unfortunately, it's sometimes like that in sport.

~Guy Forget

If you win, fine, if you don't, you try again next year.

~Guy Forget

When you are a professional sportsman all the guys are great competitors in the top 50.

~Guy Forget

You should just enjoy it, but as soon as you decide that it is going to be your career, no matter whether you want to be a doctor or an architect or anything else, you need to work 5 hours a day.

~Guy Forget

If you lived the doubles, as I did, which was very stressful, you are sitting down in a chair experiencing a match without being able to hold a racquet in your hands.

~Guy Forget

But whatever happens, when you leave London you feel like a winner because it's a great venue and it's so nice to be there with all the guys.

~Guy Forget

I think our strength is this strong relationship we have all together.

~Guy Forget

When we want to reach a dream for the second time, you want it to come true, when you try so hard, you are so close to achieving it, it makes things very difficult to live with afterwards.

~Guy Forget

When you are very little tennis should be fun, it should be a game.

~Guy Forget

You can be a little lonely because it's an individual sport.

~Guy Forget

I think each player and myself live things differently because I have no physical effort to make.

~Guy Forget

To be a professional tennis player you need to put in these sort of hours.

~Guy Forget

It's a tough world out there and all the guys are fighting hard and the competition is really tough.
