I have seen many successful people fail after they start fearing they might lose what they have built.

~Guy Laliberte

We are each but a quarter note in a grand symphony.

~Guy Laliberte

I don't believe in pitfalls. I believe in taking risks and not doing the same thing twice.

~Guy Laliberte

We didn't reinvent the circus. We repackaged it in a much more modern way.

~Guy Laliberte

Inside every adult there's still a child that lingers. We're happiness merchants - giving people the opportunity to dream like children.

~Guy Laliberte

Our approach was very simple. It was about creating a universal language. A show that will be attractive toward every people coming from all over the world. And that was a big thing.

~Guy Laliberte

Inside every adult there's still a child that lingers.

~Guy Laliberte

I am blessed for what I have, but I believed in it from the beginning. Today, the dream is the same: I still want to travel, I still want to entertain, and I most certainly still want to have fun.

~Guy Laliberte

Our biggest goal is to continue to force ourselves to always start our creative work on a white page and not take advantage of past successes and challenging ourselves.

~Guy Laliberte

The sun stands for energy and youth, which is what I thought the circus should be about.

~Guy Laliberte

I like to not be too involved in the beginning and during the process so as to keep this fresh look and be able to give constructive recommendation on the final production.

~Guy Laliberte

Life is full of adventure. There's no such thing as a clear pathway.

~Guy Laliberte

I believe there are so many other disciplines and themes that we still haven't explored yet. It's infinite what we can apply our creativity to.

~Guy Laliberte

I don't play golf or all those things people normally do for business. I do parties. That's where I bring people in, showcase ideas and, in the end, do deals.
