Is

There is hope and a kind of beauty in there somewhere, if you look for it.

~H. R. Giger

A good many people think as I do. If they like my work they are creative . . . or they are crazy.

~H. R. Giger

You get talent when you discover the ground of your pain.

~H. R. Giger

My paintings seem to make the strongest impression on people who are, well, who are crazy.

~H. R. Giger

Some people say my work is often depressing and pessimistic, with the emphasis on death, blood, overcrowding, strange beings and so on, but I don't really think it is.

~H. R. Giger

The Dutch customs once thought my pictures were photos. Where on earth did they think I could have photographed my subjects? In Hell, perhaps?

~H. R. Giger

I like elegance. I like art nouveau; a stretched line or curve. These things are very much in the foreground of my work.

~H. R. Giger

The creature we finally ended up building is biomechanical to the extent that he has physically grown into, or maybe even out of, his seat, - he's integrated totally into the function he performs.

~H. R. Giger

You know I was curious - I was interested in all kinds of mystery or deeper meanings in the paintings because I myself have not analyzed why they have turned out like this or like that.

~H. R. Giger

You know, it was just another presentation of my work, and a funny one, because the cards are quite different from the normal Tarot deck, no?

~H. R. Giger

To wear something like that your whole life is the largest compliment someone can pay to you as an artist.

~H. R. Giger

The more famous I get, the more I am tolerated, albeit with some head-shaking.

~H. R. Giger
