If I start writing a song and you try to have a conversation with me, you're a bad person.

~Halsey

Pop music really is a love and a joy and a science [of songwriting].

~Halsey

I write songs very quickly, so the 20 minutes of joy I get out of writing a song doesn't compare to the two months of joy I get engaging with the people who like my music.

~Halsey

Before Guadalcanal the enemy advanced at his pleasure - after Guadalcanal he retreated at ours.

~Halsey

It doesn't matter how many private jets you take, how much money you make, how famous you get, keep putting in the hours.

~Halsey

If I want to hang out with people, they unfortunately need to be working as often as I am.

~Halsey

It usually takes me 20 to 90 minutes to write a song because once I start, I don't stop. I like when it's really organic, so I try to knock it out in one shot.

~Halsey

If you're not inspired and you're working hard to pull inspiration from somewhere and make a song something it's not, then it's very contrived and I don't like to write music that's contrived.
