We asked Jane Fonda if she would like to meet American pilots in Hanoi, but she refused, she didn't want to.

~Hanoi Hannah

Our program for American GIs can be heard at 1630 hours.

~Hanoi Hannah

Because the GIs were sent massively to South Vietnam, maybe it's a good idea to have a broadcast for them.

~Hanoi Hannah

American GIs don't fight this unjust immoral and illegal war of Johnson's.

~Hanoi Hannah

Nothing is more confused than to be ordered into a war to die or to be maimed for life without the faintest idea of what's going on.

~Hanoi Hannah

I would like to see America some day.

~Hanoi Hannah

Because our fight has been for such a long time we are isolated from the world, even after reconstruction we don't have much attention from people outside.

~Hanoi Hannah

There's a policy now of opening the doors to the outside world.

~Hanoi Hannah

Well, we think the broadcasts did have some effect, because we see the antiwar movement in the U.S. building up, growing and so we think that our broadcast is a support to this antiwar movement.

~Hanoi Hannah

Sometimes my colleagues joke and call me Hannah.

~Hanoi Hannah

Americans are xenophobic, they will believe their own people rather than the adversary, even a friendly enemy voice.

~Hanoi Hannah

I put my heart in my work.

~Hanoi Hannah

It wasn't a new idea. During the war against the French we had this kind of broadcast for the French soldiers.

~Hanoi Hannah

I have always compared our traditions of liberty, like those of Abraham Lincoln and Ho Chi Minh.

~Hanoi Hannah

And we broadcast tapes sent to us from Americans against the war. These were most effective I believe.

~Hanoi Hannah

I had to do something for the country.
