It was my dream, and probably the dream of every one of us, to bring about a revision of the Versailles Treaty by peaceful means, which was provided for in that very treaty.

~Hans Frank

On 24 August 1939, as an officer in the reserve, I had to join my regiment in Potsdam.

~Hans Frank

I ask nothing of the Jews except that they should disappear.

~Hans Frank

I did not care for Wagner. My tastes are more classical. Der Fuhrer had no musical taste and liked Wagner because of the bombastic Teutonic glories.

~Hans Frank

In 1930 I became a member of the Reichstag.

~Hans Frank

A thousand years will pass and the guilt of Germany will not be erased

~Hans Frank

Concentration camps were entirely a matter for the police and had nothing to do with the administration.

~Hans Frank

Even in art, there is no light without shadows, and no shadows are cast without some light. Even the shadow of Adolf Hitler is accompanied by some light.

~Hans Frank

Hitler is lonely. So is God. Hitler is like God.

~Hans Frank

I am thankful for the kind treatment during my captivity and I ask God to accept me with mercy.

~Hans Frank

War is not a thing one wants.

~Hans Frank

My first endeavor was to save the core of the German system of justice: the independent judiciary.

~Hans Frank

Both Einstein and Freud were clever in leaving Germany, because both of them would doubtlessly have been caught by Himmler and murdered.

~Hans Frank

Ninety percent of the members of the Academy of German Law were not members of the Party.

~Hans Frank

First, I was Bavarian State Minister of Justice, and after the ministries of justice in the various states were dissolved I became Reich Minister without portfolio.

~Hans Frank

Ah! American cigarettes are like the American soul - sweet and light.

~Hans Frank

My aim was to safeguard justice, without doing harm to our war effort.

~Hans Frank

I dealt with legal questions in the interest of Adolf Hitler and the NSDAP and its members during the difficult years of struggle for the victory of the Movement.

~Hans Frank

Death by hanging... I deserved it and I expected it, as I've always told you. I am glad that I have had the chance to defend myself and to think things over in the last few months.

~Hans Frank

I worked as a lawyer as a member of the teaching staff of a technical college and then I worked principally as legal adviser to Adolf Hitler and the National Socialist German Workers Party.

~Hans Frank
