Democracy has nothing to do with freedom. Democracy is a soft variant of communism, and rarely in the history of ideas has it been taken for anything else.

~Hans-Hermann Hoppe

Democracy allows for A and B to band together to rip off C. This is not justice, but a moral outrage.

~Hans-Hermann Hoppe

Egalitarianism, in every form and shape, is incompatible with the idea of private property.

~Hans-Hermann Hoppe

Democracy virtually assures that only bad and dangerous men will ever rise to the top of government.

~Hans-Hermann Hoppe

The state operates in a legal vacuum. There exists no contract between the state and its citizens.

~Hans-Hermann Hoppe

The state spends much time and effort persuading the public that it is not really what it is and that the consequences of its actions are positive rather than negative.

~Hans-Hermann Hoppe

An expropriating property protector (the state, through taxation) is a contradiction in terms

~Hans-Hermann Hoppe

Even the Founding Fathers of the U.S., nowadays considered the model of a democracy, were strictly opposed to it. Without a single exception, they thought of democracy as nothing but mob-rule.

~Hans-Hermann Hoppe

Private property implies exclusivity, inequality, and difference.

~Hans-Hermann Hoppe

More paper money cannot make a society richer, of course, it is just more printed-paper. Otherwise why is it that there are still poor countries and poor people around?

~Hans-Hermann Hoppe
