I think people should maybe just go out into the garden and watch a ladybug crawl across a flower and relax their mind. That's about all you need to know about life, I think.

~Harland Williams

Pumpkins are the only living organisms with triangle eyes.

~Harland Williams

I grew up on Don Knotts and Jerry Lewis and all the guys from Second City.

~Harland Williams

The problem with binge-watching on Netflix is that you lose three days of your life.

~Harland Williams

I think life would be so much funnier if every day you saw someone walking down the street getting hit in the head by a monkey.

~Harland Williams

I hate when you go into a nice restaurant - someplace where you're going to spend good money - and there are kids in there crying.

~Harland Williams

I just tried to create a life for myself that's full of fun and fantasy and things that equal laughter. My life's been cartoons and comedy and acting, and it's just been a fun life.

~Harland Williams

Executives and studios really like to have control over their product. They panic or they're not secure enough to trust in the powers of really amazing improv people.

~Harland Williams

I don't go on tour tours, I just go randomly to cities to do shows if I have an opening in my schedule.

~Harland Williams

The thing I love about sketch is sometimes it leads you as opposed to you leading it.

~Harland Williams

Canada has been a breeding ground for great comedic actors, sketch artists and stand-up comedians. We grew up with a different perspective on the world.

~Harland Williams

I used to do little sketches into my cassette tape recorder when I was a little boy. I would just turn it on and just start doing voices and characters. I just loved it.
