I never cared so much about making perfect sense. I wanted to make perfect nonsense.

~Harmony Korine

Life is beautiful. Really, it is. Full of beauty and illusions. Life is great. Without it, you'd be dead.

~Harmony Korine

After 100 years, films should be getting really complicated. The novel has been reborn about 400 times, but it's like cinema is stuck in the birth canal.

~Harmony Korine

For certain things, certain audiences, people will laugh. And in other places, there's dead silence. And I enjoy them both. You try to make films where it's never one way - like life.

~Harmony Korine

I have no desire for any type of introspection at all. I don't ever ask myself any questions. I don't want answers.

~Harmony Korine

A scientist shouldn't be asked to judge the economic and moral value of his work. All we should ask the scientist to do is find the truth and then not keep it from anyone.

~Harmony Korine

Rap is the only interesting music left - it's the only genre that's still pushing itself, and experimenting in a way that I find exciting.

~Harmony Korine

Gucci Mane is trap rap's Frank Sinatra.

~Harmony Korine

I just wanted it to be American.

~Harmony Korine

Everything has to have some kind of a point for people to breathe easy. What's the point of life? I have no clue, but sometimes there are things that just attract us and pull us in a certain way.

~Harmony Korine

What I remember myself from films, and what I love about films, is specific scenes and characters.

~Harmony Korine

I like working with family and friends and people I admire. All my movies are filled with family members of some capacity. I think it means more when you have a personal relationship with someone.

~Harmony Korine

Even Gene Kelly: I always preferred him to Fred Astaire, just because he was more athletic, like skateboarding. His leaps were big. There was something really great about his moves.

~Harmony Korine

I've just always liked watching people dance. I can't explain it. It used to just make me laugh. Sometimes you can tell a lot about a person by the way they shake their ass.

~Harmony Korine

I just haven't let myself get to a place where I've felt a part of any kind of a community, so I've always stayed outside of it.

~Harmony Korine

I've never been into alternative, hipster rap music.
