I think a balanced team of men and women makes better decisions. That's one of the reasons why I was prepared to run for deputy leader.

~Harriet Harman

I'm sure nobody wants to know this, but my husband does all the cleaning - rather too much cleaning. It is too clean, the house!

~Harriet Harman

I don't agree with all-male leaderships. Men cannot be left to run things on their own. I think it's a thoroughly bad thing to have men-only leadership.

~Harriet Harman

I am in the Labour Party because I am a feminist. I am in the Labour Party because I believe in equality.

~Harriet Harman

I am a very big admirer of Hillary 's and I am an admirer of Obama as well.

~Harriet Harman

Not all civil servants admire strong political leadership. But if you want to change things for the better you need strong political leadership.

~Harriet Harman

For many young people mobility has turned into a bus down to the job centre.

~Harriet Harman

There are many women with children under five who want to work and who lack affordable, high-quality child care.

~Harriet Harman

I'm afraid you gave up the right to pontificate on social mobility when you abolished educational maintenance allowance [EMA], trebled tuition fees and betrayed a generation of young people.

~Harriet Harman

Now, many of us in the Labour Party are conservationists - and we all love the red squirrel. But there is one ginger rodent which we never want to see again - Danny Alexander.

~Harriet Harman

Leading the party is a privilege not a right.

~Harriet Harman

This is a very crucial period and we have got five fantastic candidates. All of them would make excellent leaders of the Party.

~Harriet Harman

The Labour Party is the sister Party for the Democrats and their progressive views are the ones that we are most aligned with.

~Harriet Harman

In a country where women regard themselves as equal, they are not prepared to see men running the show themselves.
