If you hear the dogs, keep going. If you see the torches in the woods, keep going. If there's shouting after you, keep going. Don't ever stop. Keep going. If you want a taste of freedom, keep going.

~Harriet Tubman

I was the conductor of the Underground Railroad for eight years, and I can say what most conductors can't say; I never ran my train off the track and I never lost a passenger.

~Harriet Tubman

Every great dream begins with a dreamer.

~Harriet Tubman

I had reasoned this out in my mind, there was one of two things I had a right to, liberty or death; if I could not have one, I would have the other.

~Harriet Tubman

The Lord who told me to take care of my people meant me to do it just as long as I live, and so I did what he told me.

~Harriet Tubman

Never wound a snake; kill it.

~Harriet Tubman

Lord, I'm going to hold steady on to You and You've got to see me through.

~Harriet Tubman

I looked at my hands to see if I was the same person. There was such a glory over everything. The sun came up like gold through the trees, and over the fields, and I felt like I was in heaven.

~Harriet Tubman

I had crossed de line of which I had so long been dreaming. I was free; but dere was no one to welcome me to de land of freedom, I was a stranger in a strange land.

~Harriet Tubman

Twant me, 'twas the Lord. I always told him, 'I trust to you. I don't know where to go or what to do, but I expect you to lead me,' and He always did.

~Harriet Tubman

Slavery is the next thing to hell.

~Harriet Tubman

I would fight for my liberty so long as my strength lasted, and if the time came for me to go, the Lord would let them take me.

~Harriet Tubman

I never ran my train off the track, and I never lost a passenger.

~Harriet Tubman

I started with this idea in my head, "There's two things I've got a right to, death or liberty."

~Harriet Tubman

I am at peace with God and all mankind.

~Harriet Tubman

I grew up like a neglected weed, ignorant of liberty, having no experience of it. Then I was not happy or contented: every time I saw a white man I was afraid of being carried away.

~Harriet Tubman

I can't die but once.

~Harriet Tubman

I grew up like a neglected weed - ignorant of liberty, having no experience of it.

~Harriet Tubman

Quakers almost as good as colored. They call themselves friends and you can trust them every time.

~Harriet Tubman

I looked at my hands to see if I was the same person.

~Harriet Tubman

Pears like I prayed all the time, 'bout my work, everywhere, I prayed an' groaned to the Lord.

~Harriet Tubman

I was the most famous conductor on the Underground Railroad.

~Harriet Tubman

I link dar's many a slaveholder'll git to Heaven. Dey don't know no better. Dey acts up to de light dey hab.
