If you can't pass the ball properly, a bowl of pasta's not going to make that much difference!

~Harry Redknapp

I've found myself on some days leaving home at three in the morning. I'm outside the training ground at five but they don't open up until seven. I'm just sitting there, listening to the radio.

~Harry Redknapp

He's disappeared to Azerbaijan, or somewhere ridiculous in the world.

~Harry Redknapp

I left a couple of my foreigners out last week and they started talking in foreign. I knew they were saying "Blah, blah, blah, le bastard manager..."

~Harry Redknapp

I don't think there is any place in football for drinking. I have said on several occasions to players: You don't put diesel in a Ferrari.

~Harry Redknapp
