None of us really know where we're going.

~Harry Treadaway

I love playing a character that has more than 90 minutes, and that keeps going.

~Harry Treadaway

The Victorian world is extremely dark and extremely bright.

~Harry Treadaway

I think it's amazing to have one writer write every episode of a series. It's very rare, I think. You get a voice that continues.

~Harry Treadaway

The different variables involved in anything creative, really, are massive. When it comes together, it just clicks, I suppose.

~Harry Treadaway

I look for something that grabs me and that's heartfelt, and that's coming from a good place. I want to work with good actors and with directors that I can learn from.
