There are only two types of player-those who keep their nerves under control and win championships, and those who do not.

~Harry Vardon

Never concede the putt that beats you.

~Harry Vardon

For this game you need, above all things, to be in a tranquil frame of mind.

~Harry Vardon

The most successful way to play golf is the easiest way.

~Harry Vardon

Even in our darkest hour we must remember; never despair.

~Harry Vardon

Don't play too much golf. Two rounds a day are plenty.

~Harry Vardon

To play well you must feel tranquil and at peace. I have never been troubled by nerves in golf because I felt I had nothing to lose and everything to gain.

~Harry Vardon

No matter what happens, keep on hitting the ball.

~Harry Vardon

A great deal of unnecessarily bad golf is played in this world.

~Harry Vardon

Never saw one worth a damn.

~Harry Vardon

Don't praise your own good shots. Leave that function to your partner who, if a good sport, will not be slow in performing it.

~Harry Vardon

Moderation is essential in all things, madam, but never in my life have I failed to beat a teetotaller.

~Harry Vardon

More matches are lost through carelessness at the beginning than any other cause.

~Harry Vardon

I'm the best and I'll thank you to remember that.

~Harry Vardon

There are many ways of performing the operations successfully. I can claim, however, to be in a position to explain how not to putt. I think I know as well as anybody how not to do it.

~Harry Vardon

Golfers find it a very trying matter to turn at the waist, more particularly if they have a lot of waist to turn
