In football, like in life, you must learn to play within the rules of the game.

~Hayden Fry

We'll take what the other team gives us. We'll scratch where it itches.

~Hayden Fry

Welcome to the Salvation Army. I've never been associated with an offense so nice about giving the ball away.

~Hayden Fry

How can a coach have any influence over a player that's making over five times more than he is?

~Hayden Fry

The people who run a university are far more qualified and intelligent in handling people than someone who inherited his money and used it to buy a pro team.

~Hayden Fry

When it's football season, I'm all football.

~Hayden Fry

You can't control people. You must understand them. You have to know where they're coming from, their beliefs and values, what turns them off, what they're against.

~Hayden Fry

You just witnessed an old-fashioned rump kicking.

~Hayden Fry

We have to be realistic. If we don't win, life will continue.

~Hayden Fry

I'll be here in my home with three big screens. I'll be watching three games at a time, and when they're over, I'll look at three more.

~Hayden Fry

I learned a great many things in the Marines that helped me as a football coach. The Marines train men hard and to do things the right way, just as a football team must train.

~Hayden Fry

Black is a color of power and strength, and to see all those players, with the captains linking their arms in front - it's a powerful picture.

~Hayden Fry

We're the only dance in town. We don't compete with any professional teams for the entertainment dollar.

~Hayden Fry

We probably spend more time talking about individual players in our coaching sessions than anything else.

~Hayden Fry

The thing I'm most proud of here at Iowa is putting the ANF on our headgear.

~Hayden Fry

When I talked with an opposing coach before a game and he mentions the pink walls, I know I've got him. I can't recall a coach who has stirred up a fuss about the color and then beat us.

~Hayden Fry

The preparation I had in college was the most valuable.

~Hayden Fry

We changed our image. At least when we ran out on the field or broke the huddle, we would look like winners.

~Hayden Fry

Black is a colour of power and strength.
