We're not all nice, and there are a lot of levels of ambition and niceness.

~Heather Donahue

In LA, I mean, here's this place full of desperate and sad people who take their only pleasure from destroying others for the purposes of their own self-aggrandizement.

~Heather Donahue

All this technology for connection and what we really only know more about is how anonymous we are in the grand scheme of things.

~Heather Donahue

A lot of our entertainment throws into detail the stagnation and illness of how we live today-it's sad and it's sick... and it's profitable.

~Heather Donahue

If we had been less reliant on technology and the security that we enjoy in being divorced from what we used to know, maybe things would have turned out differently.

~Heather Donahue

I could read at a very early age and I loved stories, losing myself in stories, novels.

~Heather Donahue

Acting is just something I always knew I wanted to do - acting and writing.

~Heather Donahue

I don't know anyone who ever got deferred pay. I'm the first of my friends to ever actually get a deferred paycheck.

~Heather Donahue

Ideally, I'm also sending a message that everything passes, even hope, and sometimes you have to be patient while you wait for it to come back around again.

~Heather Donahue

I am the shortest and least funny person in my family.

~Heather Donahue

I'm not the beautiful one.

~Heather Donahue

I get sidetracked very easily.

~Heather Donahue

I'm afraid to close my eyes, I'm afraid to open them

~Heather Donahue

I'm trying to drink more water.

~Heather Donahue

I find that a lot of women respond to my work in that it doesn't make them feel bad about themselves.

~Heather Donahue

I think I'm just more adaptable now, so danger, overall, seems less dangerous to me.
