If we are striving, if we are working, if we are trying, to the best of our ability, to improve day by day, then we are in the line of our duty.

~Heber J. Grant

I do not believe we accomplish very much in life unless we are enthusiastic, unless we are in earnest, and unless we practice what we preach.

~Heber J. Grant

I assert with confidence that the law of success, here and hereafter, is to have a humble and a prayerful heart, and to work, work, work.

~Heber J. Grant

There is no other labor in all the world that brings to a human heart, judging from my own personal experience, more joy, peace and serenity than proclaiming the gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ

~Heber J. Grant

Thank God we are not to be judged by the opinions of our fellows, but by the work that we do.

~Heber J. Grant

If you desire the spirit of God you must keep the commandments of God.

~Heber J. Grant

I value all things as nothing in comparison with having the spirit of God to guide me.

~Heber J. Grant

Day-dreams without work do not amount to anything; it is the actual work that counts.

~Heber J. Grant

Let every man feel that he is the architect and builder of his own life, and that he proposes to make a success of it by working.

~Heber J. Grant

The aim of the Church is to help the people to help themselves. Work is to be re-enthroned as the ruling principle of the lives of our Church membership

~Heber J. Grant

I consider it one of the greatest accomplishments of my life that I have learned to sing.

~Heber J. Grant

May we be strengthened with the understanding that being blessed does not mean that we shall always be spared all the disappointments and difficulties of life.

~Heber J. Grant

The singing of our sacred hymns, written by the servants of God, has a powerful effect in converting people to the principles of the Gospel, and in promoting peace and spiritual growth.

~Heber J. Grant

Every individual can improve from day to day, from year to year, and have greater capacity to do things as the years come and the years go.

~Heber J. Grant

He will be our comfort and solace, our guide and counselor, our salvation and exaltation, for "there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved."

~Heber J. Grant

He can who thinks he can.

~Heber J. Grant

No obstacles are insurmountable when God commands and we obey.

~Heber J. Grant

I have reached out my hand, I have plucked the fruits of the Gospel, I have eaten of them, and they are sweet, yea, above all that is sweet.

~Heber J. Grant

Being an only child, my mother reared me very carefully.

~Heber J. Grant

The singing of the songs of Zion, though imperfectly, with the inspiration of God, will touch the hearts of the honest more effectively than if sung well without the Spirit of God.

~Heber J. Grant

No power on earth, no power beneath the earth, will ever prevent you or me or any Latter-day Saint from being saved, except ourselves

~Heber J. Grant

Teaching by precept, without example, is mighty poor teaching.

~Heber J. Grant

No man can teach the Gospel of Jesus Christ under the inspiration of the living God and with power from on high unless he is living it.

~Heber J. Grant

I have no animosity against any living soul.

~Heber J. Grant

I know of nothing that I feel is of so great value in life as to be obedient to the counsel and advice of the Lord, and of His servants in this our day.

~Heber J. Grant

I believe unless we have ambition to accomplish things and to do things that we amount to but very little in the battle of life.

~Heber J. Grant

I am free to confess that I am disappointed with the Yosemite valley. It seems only about one-half as grand as the American Fork canyon.

~Heber J. Grant

In times of temptation, of sorrow, of peace and of blessing, let us pray always, both alone and with our families.

~Heber J. Grant

No matter in what land we may dwell the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ makes us brothers and sisters, interested in each other, eager to understand and know each other.

~Heber J. Grant

I am always pleased when I have the opportunity of meeting with the Latter-day Saints in any of their gatherings.

~Heber J. Grant

I am deeply interested in this work. I am anxious to encourage the people to press on in securing their genealogies and after doing so in laboring in our temples.

~Heber J. Grant

I have felt the inspiration of the living God directing me in my labors.
