It is difficult to steer a parked car, so get moving.

~Henrietta Mears

If I had my life to live over again, I would just believe God.

~Henrietta Mears

The man who keeps busy helping the man below him won't have time to envy the man above him.

~Henrietta Mears

When God gives a command or a vision of truth, it is never a question of what He will do, but what we will do.

~Henrietta Mears

Let the Bible fill the memory, rule the heart, and guide the feet.

~Henrietta Mears

God never put anyone in a place too small to grow in.

~Henrietta Mears

The man who walks with God always gets to his destination.

~Henrietta Mears

You teach a little by what you say. You teach most by what you are.

~Henrietta Mears

It is our duty to do all we can to introduce every generation to Christ.

~Henrietta Mears

When I consider my ministry, I think of the world. Anything less than that would not be worthy of Christ, nor of his will for my life.

~Henrietta Mears

Youth does not think into the future far enough, therefore we must encourage them to dream of great tomorrows.

~Henrietta Mears

Only that which is directed toward definite goals, which in turn are founded on sound educational philosophy, can be ultimately meaningful. The principles must always precede the activities.

~Henrietta Mears

All that I see teaches me to thank the Creator for all I cannot see.

~Henrietta Mears

Our duty is to understand youth, but more, to help them understand themselves that they may release their varied abilities... We must help them to discover a life work, not work for life.

~Henrietta Mears

God buries His workmen, but not His work.

~Henrietta Mears

Hospitality should have no other nature than love.

~Henrietta Mears

There is no magic in small plans.

~Henrietta Mears

Faith is caught rather than taught.
