

Henry B. Eyring Quotes

Father, Children, Heart, Jesus, Giving, Blessing, Spiritual, Prayer, Light, People, Inspirational, Long, Kindness, Thinking, Needs, Choices, Joy, Church, Opportunity, Way

Every person is different and has a different contribution to make. No one is destined to fail.

~Henry B. Eyring

Hard as things seem today, they will be better in the next day if you choose to serve the Lord this day with your whole heart.

~Henry B. Eyring

Parents, brothers and sisters, grandparents, aunts and uncles are made more powerful guides and rescuers by the bonds of love that are the very nature of a family.

~Henry B. Eyring

The great test of life is to see whether we will hearken to and obey God's commands in the midst of the storms of life.

~Henry B. Eyring

If you are on the right path, it will always be uphill.

~Henry B. Eyring

The great test of life is ... not to endure storms, but to choose the right while they rage.

~Henry B. Eyring

You can be a great model, an average one, or a bad model. You may think it doesn't matter to you, but it does to the Lord.

~Henry B. Eyring

Heavenly Father hears your prayers, He loves you. He knows your name. He loves you beyond your ability to comprehend.

~Henry B. Eyring

You need never be discouraged or afraid. The way through difficulties has always been prepared for you, and you will find it if you exercise faith.

~Henry B. Eyring

If the foundation of faith is not embedded in our hearts, the power to endure will crumble.

~Henry B. Eyring

The Lord doesn't put us through this test just to give us a test: He does it because the process will change us.

~Henry B. Eyring

Each child in each generation chooses faith or disbelief. Faith is not an inheritance; it is a choice.

~Henry B. Eyring

If you will be humble and ask God what to do, I promise you that he will always prepare a way for your deliverance.

~Henry B. Eyring

If we have faith in Jesus Christ the hardest as well as the easiest times in life can be a blessing.

~Henry B. Eyring

Acting on even a twig of faith allows God to grow it.

~Henry B. Eyring

Your calling is to bless lives. . . . Just the way you smile or the way you offer to help someone can build their faith.

~Henry B. Eyring

We lighten the loads of others best by helping the Lord strengthen them.

~Henry B. Eyring

Carrying a grudge is a heavy burden. As you forgive, you will feel the joy of being forgiven.

~Henry B. Eyring

By helping others come unto Him, you will find that you have come unto Him yourself

~Henry B. Eyring

Although his time is not always our time, we can be sure that the lord keeps his promises.

~Henry B. Eyring

Our choosing the right consistently whenever the choice is placed before us creates the solid ground under our faith

~Henry B. Eyring

The fruit of keeping covenants is the companionship of the Holy Ghost and an increase in the power to love.

~Henry B. Eyring

It is serving God and others persistently with full heart and soul that turns testimony of truth into unbreakable spiritual strength.

~Henry B. Eyring

Our human tendency is to be impatient with the person who cannot see the truth that is so plain to us. We must be careful that our impatience is not interpreted as condemnation or rejection.

~Henry B. Eyring

Don't worry about how inexperienced you are or think you are, but think about what, with the Lord's help, you can become.

~Henry B. Eyring

As you pray and serve others, your knowledge that you are a child of God and your feelings about Him will grow.

~Henry B. Eyring

With faith and obedience practiced long enough, the Holy Ghost becomes a constant companion, our natures change, and endurance becomes certain.

~Henry B. Eyring

The children of God have more in common than they have differences.

~Henry B. Eyring

The Father to whom we pray is the glorious God who created worlds through His Beloved Son.

~Henry B. Eyring

We can follow a steady upward course in a world of change without fear, welcoming opportunities

~Henry B. Eyring

You hold in your hands the happiness of more people than you can imagine.

~Henry B. Eyring

TRUST in GOD and then GO and DO.

~Henry B. Eyring

Heavenly Father and the Savior are grateful that you do your part. They know you, They watch over you, and They love you.

~Henry B. Eyring

Logical thinking will not be enough to get answers to the questions that matter most in life. We need revelation from God.

~Henry B. Eyring

I pray that wherever we are and whatever duties we have in the priesthood of God, we will be united in the cause to bring the gospel to all the world.

~Henry B. Eyring

It is by avoiding future sin that we retain a remission of the sins of the past.

~Henry B. Eyring

Humble prayer to our Heavenly Father, in deep faith in Jesus Christ, is essential to qualify us for the companionship of the Holy Ghost.

~Henry B. Eyring

If we choose to exercise faith, the Holy Ghost will bring God's kindnesses to our remembrance.

~Henry B. Eyring

You make choices every day and almost every hour that keep you walking in the light or moving away toward darkness.

~Henry B. Eyring

With one eye on today's blessings you will have more staying power for the distant goal.

~Henry B. Eyring

This is the Church of Jesus Christ, and He leads it. No assignment in it need ever overwhelm you if you know that and listen for the Master's voice.

~Henry B. Eyring

We yearn, as spirit children of our Heavenly Father, for that joy which we once had with Him in the life before this one. His desire is to grant us that sacred wish for unity out of His love for us.

~Henry B. Eyring

God loves his children more than any earthly parent, so think what your kindness to his children means to him.

~Henry B. Eyring

Testimony requires the nurturing by the prayer of faith, the hungering for the word of God in the scriptures, and the obedience to the truth.

~Henry B. Eyring

Only God knows hearts, and so only He can say, in truth, "I know how you feel."

~Henry B. Eyring

Our Heavenly Father wants our hearts to be knit together. That union in love is not simply an ideal. It is a necessity

~Henry B. Eyring

Whenever we meet anyone, our first, almost unconscious reaction may be to look for imperfections.

~Henry B. Eyring

What all of us long for in our hearts, at Christmastime and always, is to feel bound together in love with the sweet assurance that it can last forever.

~Henry B. Eyring

Love invites the Holy Ghost to be present to confirm truth. And the joy of learning divine truths creates love in the hearts of people who shared the experience of learning.

~Henry B. Eyring

While serving others, we are most likely to plead for the companionship of the Holy Ghost. Success in the Lord's service always produces miracles beyond our own powers.

~Henry B. Eyring

We have trials to face because our Heavenly Father loves us. His purpose is to help us qualify for the blessing of living with Him and His Son, Jesus Christ, forever in glory and in families.

~Henry B. Eyring

God not only loves the obedient - He enlightens them.

~Henry B. Eyring

When you meet someone, treat them as if they were in serious trouble, and you will be right more than half the time.

~Henry B. Eyring

The Lord knew I would someday be charged with the priesthood responsibility for hundreds and even thousands of Heavenly Father's children who were in desperate temporal need.

~Henry B. Eyring

The Savior warns that if we start along the path and go far enough and then fail and deny Him, it would have been better if we had never begun.

~Henry B. Eyring

Each of you is a unique child of God. God knows you individually. He sends messages of encouragement, correction, and direction fitted to you and to your needs.

~Henry B. Eyring

By His words and His example, Christ has shown us how to draw closer to Him.

~Henry B. Eyring

The first, the middle and the last thing to do is to pray.

~Henry B. Eyring

The family unit is fundamental not only to society and to the Church, but to our hope for eternal life.

~Henry B. Eyring

When you choose whether to make or keep a covenant with God, you choose whether you will leave an inheritance of hope to those who might follow your example.

~Henry B. Eyring

Every child of Heavenly Father born in the world is given at birth, as a free gift, the Light of Christ.

~Henry B. Eyring

We need not just one flash of light and comfort, but we need the continuing blessing of communication with God.

~Henry B. Eyring

It is possible to rise to the lofty standard set by the Lord for priesthood holders in making decisions in quorums. It is possible when there is great faith and love and the absence of contention.

~Henry B. Eyring

The Lord will give His righteous servants opportunities to be bold as lions when they speak in His name and as witnesses in His priesthood.

~Henry B. Eyring

Invest time that will compound forever.

~Henry B. Eyring

Whether or not you choose to keep your covenant to always remember Him, He always remembers you.

~Henry B. Eyring

The Lord will give you, if you ask, the feelings of the compassion He feels for those in need.

~Henry B. Eyring

That solid basis for a foundation of faith is personal integrity.

~Henry B. Eyring

The Savior will let you feel the love He feels for those you serve. The call is an invitation to become like Him.

~Henry B. Eyring

Pride is the great enemy of unity

~Henry B. Eyring

There is joy guaranteed for the faithful.

~Henry B. Eyring

The problem of using your time well is not a problem of the mind but of the heart.

~Henry B. Eyring

You can test what we have talked about today. Just try two things. Listen for the whisperings of the Spirit and then commit to obey. . . . God will take advantage of that if you let Him

~Henry B. Eyring

The Lord's way to help those in temporal need requires people who out of love have consecrated themselves and what they have to God and to His work.

~Henry B. Eyring

There are more temples across the earth than there have ever been. More people in all the world have felt the Spirit of Elijah move them to record the identities and facts of their ancestors' lives.

~Henry B. Eyring

We need continuing communication from god. One stream of light is not enough.

~Henry B. Eyring

We can with confidence set a goal to make this Christmas brighter than the last and each year that follows brighter still.

~Henry B. Eyring

Even before baptism, a child or an adult can have the Holy Ghost testify to their hearts of sacred truth. They must act on that testimony to retain it, but it will guide them toward goodness.

~Henry B. Eyring

One of the surest ways to avoid even getting near false doctrine is to choose to be simple in our teaching.

~Henry B. Eyring

Each of us, whatever our talents, has service to give. And to do it well always involves learning, not once or for a limited time, but continually.

~Henry B. Eyring

It is hard to repent, to admit you are wrong on faith alone before the evidence of a feeling of being forgiven and light comes.

~Henry B. Eyring

The thirst for education that comes with the change the gospel brings can be a blessing or a curse, depending on our motives.

~Henry B. Eyring

The Lord makes his servants bold.

~Henry B. Eyring

Every missionary who is proclaiming the name and gospel of Jesus Christ will be blessed by daily feasting from the Book of Mormon.

~Henry B. Eyring

We help God's children best by providing ways to build faith in Jesus Christ and in His restored gospel when they are young.

~Henry B. Eyring

Most people stop learning out of fear. They are afraid they cannot learn.

~Henry B. Eyring

We have moral agency as a gift of God. Rather than the right to choose to be free of influence, it is the inalienable right to submit ourselves to whichever of those powers we choose.

~Henry B. Eyring

God does not rule in nations, but He is mindful of them. He can and does place people in positions of influence who want what is best for the people and who trust in the Lord.

~Henry B. Eyring

We . . . have to open our mouths and bear testimony.

~Henry B. Eyring

The message of the restored gospel of Jesus Christ is that we can and must expect to become better as long as we live.

~Henry B. Eyring

The words of confirmation into the Church are an invitation: Receive the Holy Ghost. And that choice must be made not once, but every day, every hour, every minute.

~Henry B. Eyring

The ideal God holds for us is to form families in the way most likely to lead to happiness and away from sorrow.

~Henry B. Eyring

From what might appear to you to be small choices, the Lord will lead you to the happiness you want. Through your choices He will be able to bless countless others.

~Henry B. Eyring

The good word of the Lord with which we must nourish is the simple doctrine of the gospel. We need not fear either simplicity or repetition.

~Henry B. Eyring

At this and every season, our Savior invites us to join with HIM and others to offer the priceless gift of JOY.

~Henry B. Eyring

The sad pattern of lack of trust in God has persisted since the Creation.

~Henry B. Eyring

We know the Lord makes His servants bold. The young boy Joseph who saw God the Father and His Son, Jesus Christ, in a grove of trees was transformed into a spiritual giant.

~Henry B. Eyring

If you ponder the scriptures and begin to do what you covenanted with God to do, I can promise you that you will feel more love for God and more of His love for you.

~Henry B. Eyring

Ask yourself, 'How did God bless me today?' If you do that long enough and with faith, you will find yourself remembering blessings.

~Henry B. Eyring

Children are the inheritance of the Lord to us in this life and also in eternity. Eternal life is not only to have forever our descendants from this life. It is also to have eternal increase.

~Henry B. Eyring

Related Links:

- Father Quotes
- Children Quotes
- Heart Quotes
- Jesus Quotes
- Giving Quotes
- Blessing Quotes
- Spiritual Quotes
- Prayer Quotes
- Light Quotes
- People Quotes
- Inspirational Quotes
- Long Quotes
- Kindness Quotes
- Thinking Quotes
- Needs Quotes
- Choices Quotes
- Joy Quotes
- Church Quotes
- Opportunity Quotes
- Way Quotes