The spirit of Christ is the spirit of missions. The nearer we get to Him, the more intensely missionary we become.

~Henry Martyn

I am immortal until God's work for me to do is done. The Lord reigns.

~Henry Martyn

I have rightfully no other business each day but to do God's work as a servant, constantly regarding His pleasure. May I have grace to live above every human motive, simply with God and to God.

~Henry Martyn

If [God] has work for me to do, I cannot die.

~Henry Martyn

Let me burn out for God. After all, whatever God may appoint, prayer is the great thing. Oh, that I might be a man of prayer!

~Henry Martyn

The power of gentleness is irresistible.

~Henry Martyn

I see no business in life but the work of Christ.

~Henry Martyn

Even if I should never see a native converted, God may design by my patience and continuance in the Word to encourage future missionaries.

~Henry Martyn

The man who pauses in his honesty wants little of a villain.

~Henry Martyn

God and eternal things are my only pleasure.

~Henry Martyn

Now let me burn out for God.

~Henry Martyn

My soul, alas, needs these uneasinesses in outward things, to be driven to take refuge in God.

~Henry Martyn

How or by what magic is it, that we convey our thoughts to one another with such case and accuracy?

~Henry Martyn
