All anybody needs to know about prizes is that Mozart never won one.

~Henry Mitchell

Almost any garden, if you see it at just the right moment, can be confused with paradise.

~Henry Mitchell

Your garden will reveal yourself.

~Henry Mitchell

There is nothing like the first hot days of spring when the gardener stops wondering if it's too soon to plant the dahlias and starts wondering if it's too late.

~Henry Mitchell

Gardening is full of mistakes, almost all of them pleasant and some of them actually instructive.

~Henry Mitchell

Compared to gardeners, I think it is generally agreed that others understand very little about anything of consequence.

~Henry Mitchell

A garden is not a picture, but a language.

~Henry Mitchell

Nature does not hesitate to interfere with me. So I do not hesitate to tamper with it.

~Henry Mitchell

All who see it say, "Well, you have favorable conditions here. Everything grows for you." Everything grows for everybody. Everything dies for everybody, too.

~Henry Mitchell

Wherever humans garden magnificently, there are magnificent heartbreaks.

~Henry Mitchell

The mere fact that you get a lot of seeds in a packet doesn't mean you have to plant all of them.
