Rules are to be initiated for the allotment of scarce raw materials etc; and their use and processing for other than war, or otherwise absolutely vital, goods is prohibited

~Hjalmar Schacht

Wherever my work may take me in the near future even if you should see me one day within the fortress - you can always count on me as your reliable assistant.

~Hjalmar Schacht

The repeated announcements that the Russian resistance was definitely broken have been proved to be untrue.

~Hjalmar Schacht

Since our economy is closely allied with that of foreign countries, not one of us can be indifferent to what consequences these disturbances can have at home and abroad

~Hjalmar Schacht

The memory of war weighs undiminished upon the people's minds. That is because deeper than material wounds, moral wounds are smarting, inflicted by the so-called peace treaties.

~Hjalmar Schacht

It has been shown that, in contrast to everything which classical national economy has hitherto taught, not the producer but the consumer is the ruling factor in economic life.

~Hjalmar Schacht

Colonies are necessary to Germany. We shall get them through negotiation if possible; but if not, we shall take them.

~Hjalmar Schacht

Instead of a weak and vacillating Government, a single, purposeful, energetic personality is ruling today.

~Hjalmar Schacht

Material loss can be made up through renewed labor, but the moral wrong which has been inflicted upon the conquered peoples, in the peace dictates, leaves a burning scar on the people's conscience.

~Hjalmar Schacht

I can assure you that everything I say and do has the complete approval of the Fuehrer and that I would not say or do anything that does not have his approval.

~Hjalmar Schacht

Allied supplies of arms to Russia, and the manpower reserves of Russia have been sufficient to bring continuous counter-attacks against our Eastern Front

~Hjalmar Schacht

The economy is a very sensitive organism.

~Hjalmar Schacht

The Jews must realize that their influence in Germany has disappeared for all time.

~Hjalmar Schacht

The aim and the idea of the Four Year Plan were and remain entirely correct and necessary!

~Hjalmar Schacht

The presentation of the Golden Badge of the Movement is the highest honor the Third Reich has to offer.

~Hjalmar Schacht

It stands, essentially, for the application of increased energy to the efforts already undertaken by my ministry since 1934 with the results shown in the above statistics.
