I really admire people who are extraordinarily tolerant and patient.

~Holly Hunter

It's not the dress ... it's the way you see me.

~Holly Hunter

More and more movies have been pressured to allow reporters and TV cameras to come onto the set while you're working, and I find that a real violation

~Holly Hunter

I would love to work more - I really would - but there is not a lot of stuff around and the stuff that is around is not very complicated; it tends to lie a little flat

~Holly Hunter

I get cold really quickly, but I don't care. I like weather. I never understand why people move someplace so that they can avoid weather.

~Holly Hunter

I've never worked as much as I would've wanted to, and that's why I end up doing a lot of stage as well, because stage is a full course meal

~Holly Hunter

I've never had a career of that kind of box office power. I've always learned the hard way

~Holly Hunter

Drama is always conflict. Conflict either comes from within or without. The thing that makes a show different is the conflict manifests itself both internally and externally.

~Holly Hunter

I'm basically talking to the audience, standing alone, describing the weather. It's very rudimentary, the dialogue, saying what the weather is like that day.

~Holly Hunter

I act probably a lot more than you see. I happen to choose movies that don't have much of a life, or I choose movies that are shown on cable instead of as features

~Holly Hunter

The rhythm of my career has always been very static, staccato and then silent, and then a lot of work, and then none

~Holly Hunter

I've never directed, but it must be humbling.

~Holly Hunter
