I'm treating every day as a special one and trying to live in the moment.

~Hoodie Allen

Treat every person you interact with, with the same sort of attention and respect which you hope they will give to you.

~Hoodie Allen

Its important to follow your dreams whatever that may be.

~Hoodie Allen

There're always some notorious people in the crew who are doing crazy things, but I try to keep it a little more low-key. My crazy thing is always just the show and putting all my energy into it.

~Hoodie Allen

My eclectic taste allows me to do something unique and not box myself in.

~Hoodie Allen

Money isnt what drives me, getting fans who truly understand what I'm about and want to see me live is where my head is at.

~Hoodie Allen

Rap is my most used medium but I don't think I approach music like a rapper would.

~Hoodie Allen

I love having fans of all ages but it's especially cool for me to have young fans. I hope to be a role model for kids who want to follow their dreams.

~Hoodie Allen

My fans are the only people who will be with me forever, all else comes and goes.

~Hoodie Allen

It's easy to choose doing what you love when there are people out there supporting you.

~Hoodie Allen

I try not to listen to a lot of music when I'm starting the recording process, because it can be so subtly influential.

~Hoodie Allen

I'll say this: Google is the best 9-5 anyone could ever get. Awesome environment, I loved my time there, but I grew up with my dream to pursue music full time.

~Hoodie Allen

I never want a fan to come and hear what they hear on their iPod, its about creating a unqie and awesome experience.

~Hoodie Allen

My biggest regret is probably that it took me so long to find out what I want to do.

~Hoodie Allen

I am very lucky to have people who care about me and care about my music. I think it would be irresponsible to not show them as much love back as they show me.

~Hoodie Allen

It's unfair of me to tell anyone what to think. I make myself for myself to get out my own desire to create and make sense of things in life. Hopefully, it does the same for others.

~Hoodie Allen

People don't realize that there's no label and everything is self-financed and we make do and do our own thing. I was just happy to do my first video, I thought it was a fun experience.

~Hoodie Allen

Hoodie was just a nickname I had growing up and I just wanted to have a name that would stick in peoples' minds and be a little bit funny and representative of who I am.

~Hoodie Allen

The blogosphere gives me my life, I am fortunate to have developed relationships with great websites who allow me to reach a whole ton of new people everyday.

~Hoodie Allen

I think my music is born out of the music that I personally like to listen to. I love amazing singer-songwriters and diverse artists but it's important to know your strengths.

~Hoodie Allen

I am really obsessed with finding melodies that just hypnotize you and sink you into a song.

~Hoodie Allen

I am a musician, a songwriter, music fan. I live in New York City and I love my job.

~Hoodie Allen

I'm a Jewish kid who grew up loving hip hop in NY.

~Hoodie Allen

I've been writing songs since I was 10 years old and always had a penchant for rhyming. I started listening to hip hop through my friends and fell in love with it.

~Hoodie Allen

Bloggers are people too you rappers!

~Hoodie Allen

I guess this is cliché, but I'd love to work with Kanye West, Mark Ronson, Diplo.

~Hoodie Allen

I'm only concerned with making music that I love and that my fans will respond to. I am happy to see other really good young artists able to flourish and pursue their careers.

~Hoodie Allen

I've kind of shut myself off to a lot of new music because I don't want to be influenced by it.
