I mean, we do believe in due process in America. I thought we did.

~Hooman Majd

I know that my cell phone in Iran... is bugged, and they listen in, and my emails, I'm sure, are monitored inside Iran. They have my email address; it's not like they can't snoop on it.

~Hooman Majd

If you are an [American] politician it's very hard to imagine. "Now we are going to treat these guys as our equals? That's ridiculous. What have they ever done to deserve that?"

~Hooman Majd

Americans tend not to distinguish between political rhetoric and real intentions, which can lead to great misunderstanding.

~Hooman Majd

There's a lack of knowledge about Iran and the Iranian people.

~Hooman Majd

The thing about Iran is there are many political factions and it's not quite the dictatorial, authoritarian state with one person always making every single decision.

~Hooman Majd

Iran is a huge country and much, much more sophisticated than most people imagine... It certainly has the potential to be at least the way Turkey is to most Americans.

~Hooman Majd

The wrong Democratic reaction to a stupid Republican utterance is to play hurt.
