Sometimes I'll go out to say hi to people, and I'm just not ready for it. It feels too weird, too intense.

~How to Dress Well

Every new generation of smartphone just has a different-shaped button. It's embarrassing.

~How to Dress Well

I'm cool with being the sad guy, but I don't want to be the guy who nobody wants around because he's so miserable.

~How to Dress Well

It's hard to see how much of our social fabric is made up of a radical refusal to love people.

~How to Dress Well

What I'm confessing is that I've grown to a point where I feel like I should have more answers, and I don't. And I still think that applies in the George Saunders stuff.

~How to Dress Well

The interesting thing about doing press is that I learn what the album is about - I now know, a year later, looking back, what was on my mind at the time.

~How to Dress Well

Every time I think that I've pierced through the simulation, every time I feel like I've written something authentic, it feels like I then sort of lose my footing with it.

~How to Dress Well

The songs are all indexes of a time in the past when I was writing them.

~How to Dress Well

Our present era, to my mind, is characterized by a profound forgetting of the past. "The future, the future, the future." The 21st century, all the technology obsession.
