In this era of world leadership, the metal detector is the altar and the minicam may be god.

~Hugh Sidey

A sense of humor... is needed armor. Joy in one's heart and some laughter on one's lips is a sign that the person down deep has a pretty good grasp of life.

~Hugh Sidey

Carry laughter with you wherever you go.

~Hugh Sidey

A sense of humor is needed armor.

~Hugh Sidey

Bureaucrats are the only people in the world who can say absolutely nothing and mean it.

~Hugh Sidey

A White House dinner is the American family assembled, from labor leaders to billionaires, actors, architects, academicians and athletes.

~Hugh Sidey

We love the blather and boast, the charge and counter-charge of campaigning. Governing is a tougher deal.

~Hugh Sidey

The problems seem so easy out there on the stump. Deficits shrink with a rhetorical flourish.

~Hugh Sidey

When people travel here from across the country, they shed jealousies and politics and prejudices. The mighty climb down. The humble are elevated.

~Hugh Sidey

Reagan "has conducted an arms race on earth," boomed Mondale. A race generally implies two parties. The Soviets contributed a little bit to this problem, if Mondale had not noticed.
