I am such a goody-two-shoes.

~Hunter Parrish

Ultimately, I'm fine with everything that I've done.

~Hunter Parrish

Maybe I'm a better actor when I know there's going to be an older woman involved.

~Hunter Parrish

I've never done a blind date but my parents met on a blind date.

~Hunter Parrish

I've written probably over 200 songs that have a verse and a chorus and that's it.

~Hunter Parrish

My first job was a commercial for Ball Park Fun Franks.

~Hunter Parrish

My mom grew up in Kansas, my dad in Indiana. They had boring childhoods.

~Hunter Parrish

My morals are important to me.

~Hunter Parrish

New York is a character, all on its own, and whenever you film there, it becomes part of the show. That's just the nature of being there.

~Hunter Parrish

The truth is I want to make music that people enjoy.

~Hunter Parrish

I'm kind of A.D.D., and so my mind wanders a lot.

~Hunter Parrish

I want people around me who call me out and hold me accountable.

~Hunter Parrish

I started making music for myself when I was sixteen.

~Hunter Parrish

People sometimes forget how important #â€Ž Broadway is as a place for young actors to grow.

~Hunter Parrish

As soon as things become predictable, they become boring.

~Hunter Parrish

I cry at the end of every book.

~Hunter Parrish

I don't even drink coffee.

~Hunter Parrish

I grew up in Plano, Texas.

~Hunter Parrish

I just think Texas and that whole Bible Belt section is so, like, corporate. And I don't agree with organized religion in that respect.

~Hunter Parrish

I keep getting cast as this bad guy, and I don't know why.

~Hunter Parrish

I like telling stories.

~Hunter Parrish

It's funny when I get recognized on the train. People either say 'I love your show, dude' or 'Hey, where do you buy good weed?'
