How can the heart travel to God, when it is chained by its desires?

~Ibn Arabi

God sleeps in the rock, dreams in the plant, stirs in the animal, and awakens in man.

~Ibn Arabi

The ignorant one does not see his ignorance as he basks in its darkness; nor does the knowledgeable one see his own knowledge, for he basks in its light

~Ibn Arabi

I believe in the religion of Love, whatever direction its caravans may take, for Love is my religion and my faith.

~Ibn Arabi

If you find it complicated to answer someone's question, do not answer it, for his container is already full and does not have room for the answer

~Ibn Arabi

There was a time, when I blamed my companion if his religion did not resemble mine. Now, however, my heart accepts every form....Love alone is my religion.

~Ibn Arabi

I am in love with no other than myself, and my very separation is my union... I am my beloved and my lover; I am my knight and my maiden.

~Ibn Arabi

When you know yourself, your 'I'ness vanishes and you know that you and Allah are one and the same.

~Ibn Arabi

I follow the Way of Love, and where Love's caravan takes its path, there is my religion, my faith.

~Ibn Arabi

Your personal nature seeks its paradise.

~Ibn Arabi

Oh, Lord, nourish me not with love, but with the desire for love.

~Ibn Arabi

None but God is loved in the exist- ent things. It is He who is manifest within every beloved to the eye of every lover - and there is nothing in the existent realm that is not a lover

~Ibn Arabi

You are My sight, so have faith. You are My Face, so veil yourself

~Ibn Arabi

Each person is oriented toward a quest for his personal invisible guide, or . . . he entrusts himself to the collective, magisterial authority as the intermediary between himself and Revelation.

~Ibn Arabi

My creed is LOVE; Wherever its caravan turns along the way, That is my belief, My faith.

~Ibn Arabi

While you are alive, your worldly self is like a collector of benefits from Allah's bounties, which come to you from myriads of hands.

~Ibn Arabi
