First, we will focus on the privatization of small and medium sized enterprises, followed by the medium size industry and then we will move on to the heavy industry.

~Ibrahim Rugova

So as far as Serbia is concerned, it does not have the right to influence the privatization or to claim any property, because Kosovo is a former member of the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia.

~Ibrahim Rugova

The privatization law draft was recently released and I believe that very soon we will start applying it, of course taking into consideration the provisions of United Nations Mission in Kosovo.

~Ibrahim Rugova

Kosovo today is closer to Europe than other countries in the region of South Eastern Europe.

~Ibrahim Rugova

We have the EURO as a currency, which means a lot. It has not just stabilized the situation in Kosovo politically and economically, but also facilitated the direct contact that we have with Europe.

~Ibrahim Rugova

Kosovo is a small country but it also has a lot of riches that were granted to us by God.

~Ibrahim Rugova

I want to emphasize the fact that the independence of Kosovo should and will be recognized.

~Ibrahim Rugova

We had a lot of international help especially from the EU and USA, which helped us to get out of this phase of emergency, to give some dynamism to Kosova.

~Ibrahim Rugova

Today, our economy is divided: fifty percent is the public economy and fifty percent is the private economy that includes small companies employing from 4 to 200 workers.

~Ibrahim Rugova

I am going to meet everyone, including the KLA, to find out what they think.

~Ibrahim Rugova

However, we still have the problem of free travel and movement, since the Travel Documents issued by UNMIK as the substitute to passports, are not fully recognized yet by all countries.
