If I ever saw myself saying I'm excited going to Cleveland, I'd punch myself in the face, because I'm lying.

~Ichiro Suzuki

I've always prided myself in not reveling in past accomplishments and focusing on future achievement, instead. That's been my career motto.

~Ichiro Suzuki

Personally, I don't like the term 'success.' It's too arbitrary and too relative a thing. It's usually someone else's definition, not yours.

~Ichiro Suzuki

August in Kansas City is hotter than two rats fking in a sock.

~Ichiro Suzuki

I want to be the first player to show what Japanese batters can do in the major league.

~Ichiro Suzuki

If I'm in a slump, I ask myself for advice.

~Ichiro Suzuki

People striving for approval from others become phony.

~Ichiro Suzuki

You should seek approval from yourself.

~Ichiro Suzuki

I had a dream. And I made that dream come true.

~Ichiro Suzuki

The Japanese have a strong tendency to suppress their own feelings. That's the Japanese character. They kill their own emotions.

~Ichiro Suzuki

I'm told I either look bigger than I do on television or that I look smaller than I look on television. No one seems to think I look the same size.

~Ichiro Suzuki

The more that Japanese players go to the big leagues to play and succeed, the more that will serve to inspire young kids in Japan to want to become baseball players when they grow up.

~Ichiro Suzuki

As professionals we have a responsibility of providing a good show for the fans. Getting hits and home runs is what they want to see.

~Ichiro Suzuki

I've made far too many mistakes. That's the way I feel.

~Ichiro Suzuki

I played on the 2001 team, the team that won the most games in the history of Major League Baseball and also I played on one of the worst teams of Major League Baseball.

~Ichiro Suzuki

Some people enjoy taking a light stroll in the morning and that gives them relief and that sort of feeling. That is what I gain by practicing, by swinging the bat.

~Ichiro Suzuki

When people get placed upon a pedestal - when they start chasing after that person on the pedestal - they become mannequin-like.

~Ichiro Suzuki

I heard that in the United States the level of baseball was the highest in the world. So it was only natural that I would want to go there, as a baseball player.

~Ichiro Suzuki

I didn't know I hit that way (.625 with runners in scoring position). Maybe not knowing is my secret. If I chased numbers, maybe I wouldn't have as good results.

~Ichiro Suzuki

Everybody in the states is so relaxed, and everybody in Japan is so uptight.

~Ichiro Suzuki

When you mail Ichiro something from the States, you only have to use that name on the address and he gets it (in Japan). He's that big.

~Ichiro Suzuki

I wanted the challenge of competing against the best players in the world.
