There is freedom of speech, but I cannot guarantee freedom after speech

~Idi Amin

I have to keep law and order and it means that I have to kill my enemies before they kill me.

~Idi Amin

The problem with me is that I am fifty or one hundred years ahead of my time. My speed is very fast. Some ministers have had to drop out of my government because they could not keep up.

~Idi Amin

If we knew the meaning to everything that is happening to us, then there would be no meaning.

~Idi Amin

It's not for me. I tried human flesh and it's too salty for my taste.

~Idi Amin

Sometimes people mistake the way I talk for what I am thinking.

~Idi Amin

I do not want to be controlled by any superpower. I myself consider myself the most powerful figure in the world, and that is why I do not let any superpower control me.

~Idi Amin

Your experience will be a lesson to all of us men to be careful not to marry ladies in very high positions.

~Idi Amin

In any country there must be people who have to die. They are the sacrifices any nation has to make to achieve law and order.

~Idi Amin

You cannot run faster than a bullet.

~Idi Amin

Politics is like boxing - you try to knock out your opponents.

~Idi Amin

I propose getting rid of conventional armaments and replacing them with reasonably priced hydrogen bombs that will be distributed equally throughout the world.

~Idi Amin

Although some people felt Adolf Hitler was bad, he was a great man and a real conqueror whose name would never be forgotten.

~Idi Amin

I myself consider myself the most powerful figure in the world.

~Idi Amin

I'm a good Muslim and I'm only interested in Islam.

~Idi Amin

I am the hero of Africa.

~Idi Amin

I want to be remembered as a great athlete. As a boxing champion.

~Idi Amin
