The music industry had virtually blacklisted me.

~Irene Cara

I am very intense. I can't help it. That's the way I am. You can't be in this business without being intense. The pressure and tension get to you; it can't help but show on you.

~Irene Cara

I'm a woman with a mission. I've learned to believe in myself, my vision and to do things the way I want them done.

~Irene Cara

My mother always wanted to be in show business, but her parents discouraged her. So when I started performing for the mirror she enrolled me in dancing, singing and piano lessons.

~Irene Cara

All of a sudden, I was hearing stories about how difficult I was to work with, ridiculous rumors about drugs and what a diva I was. I never had to go to rehab or a program.

~Irene Cara

Cara is not my real name, and I'm not going to tell you what it is. Only because I do live in New York and enough people already know who my parents are.

~Irene Cara

I play piano and write better than I can sing.

~Irene Cara

I've had my bubblegum years and I did them well. Now it's time to come back as the woman, artist, and musician that I am without apologizing.

~Irene Cara

Take your passion and make it happen.

~Irene Cara

I liked performing, but not the struggle.

~Irene Cara

I'll never be that trusting again, believing accountants and lawyers have my best interests at heart.

~Irene Cara

Life has a balance and natural order. I'm not fighting the flow anymore. My career right now is very up. It's happening naturally and it's happening well.

~Irene Cara

My brother, Mario, is in show business and so are all my cousins on my dad's side. We come from a family of musicians. My grandmother's sister in Puerto Rico plays five instruments.

~Irene Cara

I haven't had a vacation in years. I'd really like to sneak off and just run around on a beach for a while.

~Irene Cara

It's important for me to get back to my fans here and around the world. I feel very, very blessed that so many people have continued to write me and to pour out their love for me and my work.

~Irene Cara

I refuse to let anybody try to typecast me. It's against my nature. I like to continually do different things.

~Irene Cara

I don't mean to sound immodest, but I never had any doubt that I'd be successful, nor any fear of success. I was raised as a little goddess who was told she would be a star.

~Irene Cara

Your fear seems to hide deep inside your mind

~Irene Cara

I was put into this business by my parents as soon as I could walk. I was groomed by them for this business. I didn't wake up at the early ages of 5 or 6 and say I want to be a star.

~Irene Cara

I have a pleasant voice, but I have no great range. I will say that I know how to make a song come alive and I guess I do have a sincerity that comes across. But I do alot of things better than sing.

~Irene Cara

I'll be gray by the time I'm 30, but I like my hair. It looks shiny. I like the way it looks when those highlights are picked up on camera.

~Irene Cara

That first apartment was a big step. It has a lot to do with being independent.

~Irene Cara

When I act, I act. When I sing, I sing. I don't put one over the other. Entertaining is what I do best.

~Irene Cara

It got to a point of where it was ruining my health and I just hated it. I hated doing it and I couldn't stop without some kind of help to get the longing for it out of my system.

~Irene Cara

I didn't have to go to school, graduate and then go, What am I going to do? I knew from the beginning.

~Irene Cara

I knew early in life that I wanted a show business career.

~Irene Cara

I had been performing since I was 5, so it wasn't like I hadn't been on a stage before. I was always older than my age. That's my nature. I've always been a kind of mature kid.
