Poverty-fighting programs are not handouts - they are investments.

~Irwin Redlener

If we ensure access to health care and 'best practice' asthma treatment for children, especially those at high risk, there is the potential to save the health care system billions of dollars.

~Irwin Redlener

Police officers and firemen are so visible in their daily work, there's no mistaking they're there - and that presence makes people feel secure.

~Irwin Redlener

There are several very good websites which describe the details of preparedness planning for citizens.

~Irwin Redlener

There's detailed information on how to assemble a nuclear weapon from parts. There's books about how to build a nuclear bomb.

~Irwin Redlener

Having insurance doesn't guarantee good health outcomes, but it is a critical factor.

~Irwin Redlener

The reality is that it's harder to recruit pediatric subspecialists if you're not recruiting them for a children's hospital.

~Irwin Redlener

When children are hungry, sleepy from a night spent fighting untreated asthma, or hobbled by symptoms of undiagnosed illnesses, they are less likely to do well in school.

~Irwin Redlener

Immigrant children are highly vulnerable. Their level of disadvantage and fragility has consistently grown due to factors outside their control.

~Irwin Redlener

Poverty leads to hardship and failure.

~Irwin Redlener

Even the best community organizations and faith-based initiatives and the extraordinary charity of Americans across the country can't carry the brunt of eliminating poverty.

~Irwin Redlener

There isn't a single American city, in my estimation, that has sufficient plans for a nuclear terrorist event.

~Irwin Redlener

The risks are far greater to your child of not getting immunized than any kind of speculative potential relationship between the vaccine and the development of autism.

~Irwin Redlener

Fallout shelters are like bell-bottoms. They've gone in and out of favor.

~Irwin Redlener

Seven million ship cargo containers come into the United States every year. Five to seven percent only are inspected - five to seven percent.

~Irwin Redlener

If a severe pandemic materializes, all of society could pay a heavy price for decades of failing to create a rational system of health care that works for all of us.

~Irwin Redlener

Disasters like Oklahoma City and 9/11 were time-limited. The children who were affected psychologically could go to a place of normalcy.
