Everybody feels up sometimes, they feel down sometimes, sometimes they feel sideways, sometimes they feel weird.

~Isaac

Outside intelligences, exploring the Solar System with true impartiality, would be quite likely to enter the Sun in their records thus: Star X, spectral class G0, 4 planets plus debris.

~Isaac

One of the ways we can bear the image of God well is to see things in others they don't see themselves and call that out of them.

~Isaac

The Christian ministry is the worst of all trades, but the best of all professions.

~Isaac

I don't get 'shark' - but who cares!

~Isaac

A poor idea well written is more likely to be accepted than a good idea poorly written

~Isaac

Stick around. I'm full of bad ideas.

~Isaac

If a book has no index or good table of contents, it is very useful to make one as you are reading it.

~Isaac

I'm about to be shot 150 feet up in the air. I feel queasy!

~Isaac

A tennis racket makes a great fake guitar!

~Isaac

If I see a cool chick in the street, I'll watch her going by, won't I?

~Isaac

Even though being a kid is kind of a carefree sort of thing for the most part, I guess there are definitely a lot of things that stick in kids' minds.

~Isaac

Nobody stays exactly the same. You'll definitely know it's Hanson, but we're constantly changing.

~Isaac

It's so unattractive, I'm sorry.

~Isaac

I could go to juvie instead of real prison.

~Isaac

It's so cool to get to talk to fans, to find out where they're from and why they bought the records.

~Isaac

A planet full of people meant nothing against the dictates of economic necessity!

~Isaac

I feel that the longest and worst punishment should be reserved for those who slandered God by inventing Hell.

~Isaac

It's one thing to have guts; it's another to be crazy.

~Isaac

Societies create their own history and tend to wipe out lowly beginnings, either by forgetting them or inventing totally fictitious heroic rescues.

~Isaac

Just like styles change, music changes.

~Isaac

I'm paid to preach not to practice.
