Everywhere in the world, music enhances a hall, with one exception: Carnegie Hall enhances the music.

~Isaac Stern

Mozart's music is like an X-ray of your soul - it shows what is there, and what isn't.

~Isaac Stern

Music is the thousandth of a millisecond between one note and another; how you get from one to the other-that's where the music is.

~Isaac Stern

There are more bad musicians than there is bad music.

~Isaac Stern

Music is like making love: either all or nothing.

~Isaac Stern

When you believe in something, you can move mountains.

~Isaac Stern

It is only through failure and through experiment that we learn and grow.

~Isaac Stern

Music is not an acquired culture... it is an active part of life.

~Isaac Stern

A man possesses talent; genius possesses the man.

~Isaac Stern

A conductor has to know how to translate music into a communicative force that makes the listener want to hear what he has to say.

~Isaac Stern

New York is the dirtiest, largest, ugliest, broken-down city in the world-but it's the only one.

~Isaac Stern

Playing a concerto with Zubin is like being surrounded by a well-loved, cashmere-lined silk glove.

~Isaac Stern

I have known Ori Kam for several years and have always regarded him as an extraordinarily talented young musician.
