People instantly assume you can't have a platonic friendship with someone of the opposite sex. I think this may be specific to L.A.â€™or America.

~Isabel Lucas

I just said yes to opportunities that came my way.

~Isabel Lucas

I need to travel - I crave the power of the ocean and the trees give me so much energy to think.

~Isabel Lucas

There's no point in dwelling on rejection.

~Isabel Lucas

I was a barefoot earth child for a couple of years.

~Isabel Lucas

I don't really get nervous for auditions, because I just see them as mini acting classes. There's no need to have an attachment to the outcome because it's out of your hands after that.

~Isabel Lucas

Mom worked with autistic children.

~Isabel Lucas

I've always been quiet, more of an observer.

~Isabel Lucas

Change, of course, is growth, and anything that is not growing is either paralysed or it's not alive, because that's life; we always change and we grow.

~Isabel Lucas

You can't give if your cup of inspiration isn't full.

~Isabel Lucas

I'm a fatalist. I believe things happen for a reason, that you attract people and situations that are meant to fulfil your path.

~Isabel Lucas

I like to keep mobile. It keeps my mind awake.

~Isabel Lucas

I grew up around animals [seven horses, dogs and now a pet goldfish named Leila] and I'm rebelling against them not having a natural existence.

~Isabel Lucas

Acting kind of chose me.

~Isabel Lucas

My first audition was the worst I have ever done, ever.

~Isabel Lucas

My dad is a pilot so I think I was born with the travel bug.

~Isabel Lucas

I'm really drawn to European films.

~Isabel Lucas

I go by intuition. Work-wise, that means asking myself if a role will push me outside my comfort zone, challenge me to learn something new.

~Isabel Lucas

I find it tricky to make plans.

~Isabel Lucas

I don't think it's unusual to spend time with your castmate.

~Isabel Lucas

My best friend was Aboriginal.
