I'm an atrocious business man, because it's just not the way I think about things. And that's pretty much what all that Grammy/MTV kind of stuff is tied into.

~J. Robbins

There are a few artists that I'm really into. I mean, I'm a big Nick Cave fan. And there's a band from Australia called Big Heavy Stuff that's one of my favorite bands ever.

~J. Robbins

It's sort of a fine line where you're dying to express it and then hoping no one really gets it that closely. But I'm pretty much over that. I'd really just like to be understood.

~J. Robbins

When I run across something that feels like a real eye-opener, it's gonna have an influence on me forever.

~J. Robbins

Tim [Omundson] is just so wonderfully delicious. He has the sexiest beard on television. He's such a fabulous actor, and a great character.

~J. Robbins

To say someone is a producer... it's kind of a slippery term.

~J. Robbins

The Grammys thing doesn't even touch my world at all.

~J. Robbins

I'm a terrible drummer. I can tune 'em pretty good, but I'm a pretty bad drummer.

~J. Robbins

Who's got the most heartbreaking voice? I don't know. Tough question.

~J. Robbins

One thing I know that's really cool - it seems to me that Blake Schwarzenbach [Jets to Brazil frontman; ex-Jawbreaker] is someone who's made music that's people continue to take really personally.

~J. Robbins

I'm no good at predicting what will endure with people. I only know what speaks to me.

~J. Robbins

Another cultural thing that's really creepy. It's not like in the '60s, where there were definitely great high points of creativity where people were trying to outdo each other to be noticed even.

~J. Robbins

For most of the projects I've worked on, I've been entrusted with some degree of musical responsibility, even if it's just like coaching for vocals and stuff.

~J. Robbins

I worry about financial security, and the older I get the more I worry about it.

~J. Robbins

I'm the kind of person that, as a listener, will go the extra mile to interpret something that's fairly meaningless, or that might be meaningless.

~J. Robbins

I think politics and personal psychology and interrelationships - these things are interrelated to me and overlap.

~J. Robbins

The fact of picking up an instrument and writing a song and expressing yourself publicly has a powerful political dimension.
