Men may spurn our appeals, reject our message, oppose our arguments, despise our persons, but they are helpless against our prayers.

~J. Sidlow Baxter

What is the difference between an obstacle and an opportunity? Our attitude toward it. Every opportunity has a difficulty, and every difficulty has an opportunity.

~J. Sidlow Baxter

Bethlehem and Golgotha, the Manger and the Cross, the birth and the death, must always be seen together.

~J. Sidlow Baxter

Christianity is based on a book. It centers in a Person. It expresses itself in a message. It authenticates itself in an experience.

~J. Sidlow Baxter

True consecration to Christ simplifies life, for it leaves the management to Him.

~J. Sidlow Baxter

Fundamentally, our Lord's message was Himself. He did not come merely to preach a Gospel; He himself is that Gospel.

~J. Sidlow Baxter

Argument need not be heated; it can be punctuated with courteous smiles - or sympathetic tears.

~J. Sidlow Baxter

He is indeed the 'Lamb.' There is nothing harsh or haughty or retaliative about Him.

~J. Sidlow Baxter

I have said it many a time, and am surer of it than ever, that the life and death issue of Christianity is the inspiration and authority of the Bible.

~J. Sidlow Baxter

As trait after trait swings into focus and fulfillment, can we write any other name under Isaiah's amazing portrait of the sublime Sufferer in Chapter 53 than Jesus of Nazareth?

~J. Sidlow Baxter

Regeneration is the fountain; sanctification is the river.

~J. Sidlow Baxter

Men's giving can only be to a certain extent: but God's is without limit.

~J. Sidlow Baxter

Regeneration is the fountain; sanctification is the river (in deeper or shallower degree). 'Entire sanctification' is the river in fullest flow.

~J. Sidlow Baxter

If the Bible is uniquely and inerrantly inspired, then we have certainty; we may know real truth about God
