If we are going to be wise, spiritual people prepared to meet the crises of our age, we must be a studying, learning community that values the life of the mind

~J.P. Moreland

The proper thing to do is to admit that hell is real and to allow our feelings of discomfort to motivate us to action.

~J.P. Moreland

Anti-intellectualism has spawned an irrelevant gospel. Today, we share the gospel primarily as a means of addressing felt needs.

~J.P. Moreland

Religion is now viewed by many as a placebo or emotional crutch precisely because that is how we often pitch the gospel to unbelievers

~J.P. Moreland

Love God with all your mind.

~J.P. Moreland

When God chooses to create somebody, he or she has an impact on other people's choices and it might be that they have an impact on their decisions to trust Christ or not.

~J.P. Moreland

We need to admit the mind into Christian fellowship again. We need the mind disciplined in Christ, enlightened by faith, passionate for God and his creation, to be let loose in the world.

~J.P. Moreland

No one will go to hell simply because all they needed was a little more time and they died prematurely.

~J.P. Moreland

The contemporary Christian mind is starved, and as a result we have small, impoverished souls.

~J.P. Moreland

Real life does not come naturally. It is counterintuitive. It is a skill we have to learn. That's because the way to real life is not something we get, but something we give.
