I just knew how to do the one thing I did, and whether I did it well or not depended on who the director was.

~Jackie Cooper

I never say too much about that in public interviews, because it disappoints the public to tell them you're not that crazy about a property you did that possibly they liked.

~Jackie Cooper

They kept me in short pants as long as they could, until they were shaving the hair on my legs because it was beginning to photograph.

~Jackie Cooper

Keep doing what you've been doing and you will keep getting what you've been getting!

~Jackie Cooper

If it's boring, then it's tiring.

~Jackie Cooper

So if I keep making mistakes on Broadway or tape or film, producing, directing or acting, I can go along and do it - so long as I'm not investing too much capital in these things.

~Jackie Cooper

So then you have to say to yourself: Do I want to be rich, or do I want to do good work?

~Jackie Cooper

A nice, steady job I don't need that bad. I'm not that satisfied with it.

~Jackie Cooper

There was only so much television you could do.

~Jackie Cooper

In those days, even as a boy, I watched some people that I knew were living way beyond their means.

~Jackie Cooper

There was never any effort made out there to improve the artist.

~Jackie Cooper

To me, the series was the end of the actor, when the series ended.

~Jackie Cooper

I remember Mr. Mayer very well. He sort of liked to be the father - no, he liked to be treated like you thought he was Daddy, but he didn't treat you like Daddy at all.

~Jackie Cooper

A lot of people like to run in plays because it's a nice, steady job.

~Jackie Cooper

So I'm in that half-hour business where the most money is, so that eventually I feel like the people that put on the Dupont show, like maybe my artistic effort is going to be a little different.

~Jackie Cooper
