A life is not important except in the impact it has on other lives.

~Jackie Robinson

I'm not concerned with your liking or disliking me... All I ask is that you respect me as a human being.

~Jackie Robinson

Life is not a spectator sport. If you're going to spend your whole life in the grandstand just watching what goes on, in my opinion you're wasting your life.

~Jackie Robinson

There's not an American in this country free until every one of us is free.

~Jackie Robinson

The most luxurious possession, the richest treasure anybody has, is his personal dignity.

~Jackie Robinson

I am not concerned with being liked or disliked. I am concerned with being respected

~Jackie Robinson

If I had to choose between baseball's Hall of Fame and first class citizenship for all of my people. I would say first-class citizenship.

~Jackie Robinson

I know that I am a black man in a white world. . . I know that I never had it made.

~Jackie Robinson

Relationships may change throughout the gift of time, memories stay the same forever in my mind.

~Jackie Robinson

This ain't fun. But you watch me, I'll get it done.

~Jackie Robinson

A life isn't significant except for its impact on others' lives.

~Jackie Robinson

Baseball is like a poker game. Nobody wants to quit when he's losing; nobody wants you to quit when you're ahead.

~Jackie Robinson

At the beginning of the World Series of 1947, I experienced a completely new emotion when the National Anthem was played. This time, I thought, it is being played for me, as much as for anyone else.

~Jackie Robinson

The many of us who attain what we may and forget those who help us along the line we've got to remember that there are so many others to pull along the way. The farther they go, the further we all go.

~Jackie Robinson

The right of every American to first-class citizenship is the most important issue of our time.

~Jackie Robinson

Above anything else, I hate to lose.

~Jackie Robinson

I don't think it matters what I believe, only what I do.

~Jackie Robinson

Life is not a spectator sport.

~Jackie Robinson

How you played in yesterday's game is all that counts.

~Jackie Robinson

When he (Richard Nixon) took the oath of office, he pledged to be the president for 100% of the people, and I challenge the president to prove that he is being the president for 100% of the people.

~Jackie Robinson

I never cared about acceptance as much as I cared about respect.

~Jackie Robinson

You're going to be a great player, kid.

~Jackie Robinson

The way I figured it, I was even with baseball and baseball with me. The game had done much for me, and I had done much for it.

~Jackie Robinson

I ought to break this trophy into 32 pieces

~Jackie Robinson

Pop flies, in a sense, are just a diversion for a second baseman. Grounders are his stock trade.

~Jackie Robinson

I don't like needing anyone for anything.

~Jackie Robinson

Are you looking for a Negro who won't fight back?

~Jackie Robinson

It's not easy to be a martyr in the field of race relations.

~Jackie Robinson

I'm not goin' anywhere, I'm right here!
