It is not always possible to be the best, but it is always possible to improve your own performance.

~Jackie Stewart

Cornering perfectly is like bringing a woman to climax.

~Jackie Stewart

Oh yes. It's not when you brake but when you take them off that counts. Most people don't understand that.

~Jackie Stewart

There is no doubt that Formula 1 has the best risk management of any sport and any industry in the world.

~Jackie Stewart

Nobody's perfect, but all of us can be better than we are.

~Jackie Stewart

In my sport, the quick are too often listed among the dead

~Jackie Stewart

Sometimes you need to ease off in order to go faster

~Jackie Stewart

Juan Fangio was the great man of racing, whilst Stirling Moss was the epitome of a racing driver.

~Jackie Stewart

It takes leadership to improve safety.

~Jackie Stewart

There's enough Ferraris here to eat a plate of spaghetti.

~Jackie Stewart

From the five years, 1968-73, if you were an F1 driver at that time, there was a very likely chance that you would have died.

~Jackie Stewart

Good luck in most cases comes through the misfortune of others.

~Jackie Stewart

It takes leadership to improve safety. And I started off the movement in my time, but the person who has done more over the past 20 to 30 years and who has led it is Professor Sid Watkins.

~Jackie Stewart

I would have been a much more popular World Champion if I had always said what people wanted to hear. I might have been dead, but definitely more popular.

~Jackie Stewart

The years I raced in were fantastic. There was so much change in the cars. We went from treaded tyres to no wings right through to slicks to enormous wings.

~Jackie Stewart

From today I am no longer a racing driver. I'm retired and I am very happy.

~Jackie Stewart

In one year I travelled 450,000 miles by air.
