We need more men with the guts, with the courage, with the strength, with the moral integrity to break our complicit silence and challenge each other and stand with women and not against them.

~Jackson Katz

Calling gender violence a women's issue is part of the problem. It gives a lot of men an excuse not to pay attention.

~Jackson Katz

We need to redefine strength in men, not as the power over other people, but as forces for justice.

~Jackson Katz

There's been an awful lot of silence in make culture about this ongoing tragedy of men's violence against women and children... we need to break that silence, and we need more men to do that.

~Jackson Katz

Media play a powerful role in establishing and perpetuating social norms.

~Jackson Katz

In real life, women dont enjoy being degraded and treated like objects/receptacles.

~Jackson Katz

If the KKK was smart enough, they would've created gangsta rap because it's such a caricature of black culture and black masculinity.

~Jackson Katz

Men are every bit as gendered as women.

~Jackson Katz

We talk about how many women were raped last year, not about how many men raped women.

~Jackson Katz

Sociopathy is the extreme manifestation of the way we socialize boys in our society.

~Jackson Katz

In corporate culture, in sports culture, in the media, we honor those who win at all costs.

~Jackson Katz

It's a bad thing that happens to women, but when you look at that term 'violence against women,' nobody is doing it to them. It just happens to them. Men aren't even a part of it.

~Jackson Katz

Elite athletes learn entitlement. They believe they are entitled to have women serve their needs. It's part of being a man. It's the cultural construction of masculinity.

~Jackson Katz

Typical news accounts and commentaries about school shootings and rampage killings rarely mention gender.

~Jackson Katz

Language usage always has a political context.
