Never judge anyone by another's opinions. We all have different sides that we show to different people.

~Jacqueline Susann

When you're climbing Mount Everest, nothing is easy. You just take one step at a time, never look back and always keep your eyes glued to the top.

~Jacqueline Susann

Never let anyone shame you into doing anything you don't choose to do. Keep your identity.

~Jacqueline Susann

Yes, there's one thing I do want. I want to be aware of the minutes and the seconds, and to make each one count.

~Jacqueline Susann

Do not measure the number of tragedies you sustain, but to quantify the success you derive from them.

~Jacqueline Susann

Everyone has an identity. One of their own, and one for show.

~Jacqueline Susann

I don't think any novelist should be concerned with literature—literature should be left to essayists.

~Jacqueline Susann

Acting is glamour but writing is hard work, so I'm going to be an actress.

~Jacqueline Susann

The second draft is on yellow paper, that's when I work on characterizations. The third is pink, I work on story motivations. Then blue, that's where I cut, cut, cut.

~Jacqueline Susann

I've got a library copy of Gone with the Wind, a quart of milk and all these cookies. Wow! What an orgy!

~Jacqueline Susann

I wanted to write it long before I wrote Every Night, Josephine! I'd been thinking about it a long time.

~Jacqueline Susann

As a writer no one's gonna tell me how to write. I'm gonna write the way I wanna write!

~Jacqueline Susann

A man must feel he runs things, but as long as you control yourself, you control him.

~Jacqueline Susann

A new book is just like any new product, like a detergent. You have to acquaint people with it. They have to know it's there. You only get to be number one when the public knows about you.

~Jacqueline Susann

The 60s will be remembered for The Beatles, Andy Warhol and Me!

~Jacqueline Susann

Money bought freedom; without it one could never be free.

~Jacqueline Susann

Philip Roth is a good writer, but I wouldn't want to shake hands with him.

~Jacqueline Susann

Did money give people a blind spot? Rob them of their hearing?

~Jacqueline Susann
