I try to keep my private life private.

~Jake Epstein

I wanted to be a soccer player. And then I wanted to be a rabbi.

~Jake Epstein

I am an ordinary teenager. I fall in love like everyone else.

~Jake Epstein

I was very spiritual as a kid. I think I felt and thought about things a lot more deeply than most of the other kids my age. I wanted to help people.

~Jake Epstein

I came from a huge extended family of musicians.

~Jake Epstein

I played the drums, and I was in a band called Funkasaurus Rex in Toronto. When I left for school, it became hard to play as frequently.

~Jake Epstein

I grew up reading comics. I was primarily an 'X-Men' fan, but I definitely dressed up as Spider-Man for Halloween when I was, like, 12 years old. Maybe younger than that.

~Jake Epstein

I'm at the National Theatre School, which is like the Juilliard of Canada.

~Jake Epstein

'Will You Still Love Me Tomorrow,' if you go through the lyrics, is such a haunting melody, and the words are, for a pop song, pretty deep and dark.

~Jake Epstein

I am definitely someone who needs to take a second by myself and stretch and breathe before a show.

~Jake Epstein

I grew up in Canada and was a huge Spider-Man fan, and never thought of Spider-Man as an American hero.

~Jake Epstein

The dream is to originate a role in a show on Broadway. That's the ultimate goal.

~Jake Epstein

If you'd ever told me that my Broadway debut would be playing Spider-Man, I would have laughed in your face.

~Jake Epstein

The fact is, 'Billy Elliot' is an incredible show, for any age and any gender. 'Degrassi' fans would absolutely fall in love with 'Billy Elliot.'

~Jake Epstein

I was a jock, hardcore sports all the way down the line, but I heard that if you auditioned for this arts school, you got time off school, and that sounded good to me.

~Jake Epstein

I'm always surprised at how many people remember me from 'Degrassi.'

~Jake Epstein

I won the family lottery. I come from the best family in the world.
