I'm pretty sure Adele and James Blunt were dumped by the same man.

~James Blunt

I am a dreamer but when I wake, you can't break my spirit, it's my dreams you take

~James Blunt

I guess if you're stupid enough to join the army without thinking about getting shot at, then you really are a fool.

~James Blunt

I write, "Give me reason but don't give me choice, because I'll make the same mistake again." I think that's what most men want to be told.

~James Blunt

Will you be my shoulder when I'm gray and older? Promise me tomorrow starts with you. Getting high, running wild among the stars above. Sometimes it's hard to believe you remember me.

~James Blunt

The showbiz world has to be manipulated to make it more interesting because most people's lives are boring.

~James Blunt

Being British, I don't really have a way of expressing myself in conversation. Music transcends language.

~James Blunt

If the Army helped towards my tuition fees I would then give them four years of my life.

~James Blunt

My life is brilliant, My love is pure.

~James Blunt

It may be over but it won't stop there, I am here for you if you'd only care

~James Blunt

I am not into fashion. I just like being able to buy my mates dinner.

~James Blunt

I try to read everything that I can about myself because Saddam Hussein didn't read his reviews and he thought he was winning!

~James Blunt

The song is about love, life, fear and hope... and more than anything, you... and me...

~James Blunt

And the one job my father knew of, that he'd had experience of himself, was the Army, so he could help me in that direction.

~James Blunt

Things take a long time, but when it's right things move fast.

~James Blunt

Honestly if men are given a choice, we'll choose everything.

~James Blunt

I never really set out to do anything in the charts with music. It came as a total surprise that I did, and it's fun.

~James Blunt

Mothers always think their children are prettier than they really are, and mine has always told me I look like Tom Cruise.

~James Blunt

I know I'm a pop star. But sometime I'd like to be a rock star.

~James Blunt

Maybe I should try singing like a man.

~James Blunt

I think the things that make me excited are only best when they're shared with people.

~James Blunt

I have been told by people that I should not be seen clubbing with good-looking women, but I can't see why not. Why be a pop star otherwise?

~James Blunt

I write songs about my own experiences. You can't lie to yourself. You can't pose to yourself.

~James Blunt

My dad was in the Army. The Army's not great pay, but, you know, we moved from Army patch to Army patch wherever that was. The Army also contributed to sending me off to boarding school.

~James Blunt

I always wanted to be a Muppet.

~James Blunt

My parents are still together. I have two sisters. I travel the world and they are the people I speak to.

~James Blunt

I try to tell one lie in every interview. It keeps people I know amused when they read the article.

~James Blunt

It's always nice to be able to capture your life's experiences in a song and hold the emotion in that way.

~James Blunt

This will be my first visit [to Israel]. I've heard it's a special place, that Tel Aviv is exciting and that the atmosphere is excellent....I hope I'll have time to visit the holy places.

~James Blunt

War is devastating, and it leaves its scars for generations.

~James Blunt

I think sensitive is the wrong description of me. I'm British, actually, so quite bad at expressing myself in conversation, as any ex-girlfriend will tell you. I'm probably emotionally stunted.

~James Blunt

Every person I've met has influenced my songs.

~James Blunt

Ladies love a soppy lyric. There's a real winner in 'Carry You Home'.

~James Blunt

I always wanted to be a Muppet. So when 'Sesame Street' approached me to guest star, I thought: 'I'm going to be on this!' It's pretty incredible stuff.

~James Blunt

On the song 'Dangerous,' it feels like a teenager picking up a new instrument and writing something with all of that naive excitement.

~James Blunt

I don't think I picked up the guitar in the first place as a way of getting women. There are probably better ways of doing it.

~James Blunt

I don't know how to write without thinking what people would want. You don't know whether they want you to be black or white, so you kind of get a gray, something in the middle.

~James Blunt

If you get up on stage and brag, I don't think that's very brave. It's braver to get up and take your clothes off. And I do that every night.

~James Blunt

Every time I do an interview, it's like serious therapy. But real therapy isn't something that I'd ever have. I feel fortunate that mentally everything is functioning well.

~James Blunt

To get up on stage with a band is fantastic. To play songs to an audience is mindblowing.

~James Blunt

To come home and share life experiences with friends is the key to what makes me feel really alive.

~James Blunt

I have fun with it and I am honest and open about the way I lead my life and don't mislead anyone. I've had the time of my life and thank God for that, it would be such a waste otherwise.

~James Blunt

No matter whether you are black or white, man or woman, gay or straight, Christian, Muslim, or Jew, we all share the same emotions, the same human condition.

~James Blunt

I'm screaming at the top of my voice

~James Blunt
