The world's greatest champion of woman and womanhood is Jesus the Christ.

~James E. Talmage

The Lord's hand is in our lives; if we will but feel for it, in the darkness, we can grasp it and be lifted thereby.

~James E. Talmage

Man cannot measure the bounds nor fathom the depths of divine forgiveness.

~James E. Talmage

Physical exercise is indispensable to the development of body, and quite as certainly is spiritual activity requisite to the healthful and normal development of the soul.

~James E. Talmage

Within the Gospel of Jesus Christ there is room and place for every truth thus far learned by man or yet to be made known.

~James E. Talmage

No pang that is suffered by man or woman upon the earth will be without its compensating effect . . . if it be met with patience.

~James E. Talmage

Prayer is the Lord's great sterilizer against the germs of spiritual disease.

~James E. Talmage

Gratitude is twin sister to humility; Pride is foe to both.

~James E. Talmage

Mere pleasure is at best but fleeting; happiness is abiding, for in the recollection thereof is renewed.

~James E. Talmage

Belief, in one of its accepted senses, may consist in a merely intellectual assent, while faith implies such confidence and conviction as will impel to action.

~James E. Talmage

No opinion that cannot stand discussion or criticism is worth holding.

~James E. Talmage

Mortal birth is a boon to which only those spirits who kept their first estate are eligible.

~James E. Talmage
