If you forgive people enough you belong to them, and they to you, whether either person likes it or not squatter's rights of the heart.

~James Hilton

Surely there comes a time when counting the cost and paying the price aren't things to think about any more. All that matters is value - the ultimate value of what one does.

~James Hilton

Is there not too much tension in the world at present, and might it not be better if more people were slackers?

~James Hilton

if we have not found the heaven within,we have not found the heaven without

~James Hilton

The right mixture of caring and not caring - I suppose that's what love is.

~James Hilton

People make mistakes in life through believing too much, but they have a damned dull time if they believe too little.

~James Hilton

There's only one thing more important... and that is, after you've done what you set out to do, to feel that it's been worth doing.

~James Hilton

Laziness in doing stupid things can be a great virtue.

~James Hilton

And I believe that the Binomial Theorem and a Bach Fugue are, in the long run, more important than all the battles of history.

~James Hilton

We believe that to govern perfectly it is necessary to avoid governing too much.

~James Hilton

There are times in life when the most comfortable thing is to do nothing at all. Things happen to you and you just let them happen.

~James Hilton

The exhaustion of the passions is the beginning of wisdom.

~James Hilton

When you are getting on in years (but not ill, of course), you get very sleepy at times, and the hours seem to pass like lazy cattle moving across a landscape.

~James Hilton

When it comes to believing things without actual evidence, we all incline to what we find most attractive.

~James Hilton

In a small cathedral town where changes are few, there are always people who remember who used to live in a particular house, what happened to them there and afterwards, and so on.

~James Hilton

It's a very remarkable story." "Remarkable's a well-chosen word. It doesn't give you away.

~James Hilton

You will have Time, that rare and lovely gift that your Western countries have lost the more they have pursued it.
