One thing that I've struggled with has been a certain amount of animosity toward the whole human race.

~James Mercer

Humans are social creatures that really crave intimacy.

~James Mercer

There's no real reason for me to be so obsessed with trying to understand the true nature of things. You can live a perfectly happy life being utterly confused and not knowing.

~James Mercer

I do like talking with friends about big concepts, you know, the stuff that will ruin a party. To me, the party hasn't begun until we're talking about the nonexistence of God.

~James Mercer

I tend to [have] a lot of ideas but then just leave them in that infant form and kind of move on.

~James Mercer

I'm not really excited about the idea of committing to anything permanently.

~James Mercer

I was a regular dork. I was a kid who was scrawny and all that, and probably kind of dumb or something. I wasn't unordinary; I wasn't extraordinary.

~James Mercer

My dad and I get into it all the time. He loves to discuss politics much more than I do and we have pretty heated conversations.

~James Mercer

I have no ethics when it comes to art. You just do what you can to make it as beautiful as you can.

~James Mercer

I suppose, if someone was into baseball for an extended period of time during their formative years, they're always going to be interested in it.

~James Mercer

I really [enjoy] working with new people and just sort of the freshness of it. ... I [want] to have those new conversations, musically and otherwise.

~James Mercer

I really know so little about recording, and I'm learning as I go.

~James Mercer

Horrible dates are when you're with people who are immature and can't really be comfortable in their own skin.

~James Mercer

I think perfect dates involve walking a lot, and not a bunch of driving around in cars. Ideally, you can walk together and go to a restaurant.

~James Mercer

I've never gone through an audition process or anything. In most of my decisions like that, I just kind of feel it out: You know, do I feel comfortable with this person?

~James Mercer

The love you have for your kids is so overwhelmingly powerful that it alters your perspective. The dark things going on in the world become very poignant and vivid.

~James Mercer

Honestly, humans are social creatures that really crave intimacy, and I think that the friends I have who are trying to somehow go it alone are suffering for it.
